Viktor Mayevsky, in an article written for Tass today, described "The Penkovsky's Papers" as "the latest masterpiece" produced by the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency.

He declared that the CIA had restored to a "shameless falsification."

The commentator continued: "It is impossible to list all the balderdash one meets on every page of the latest masterpiece produced by the CIA. This was obviously the reason why The Washington Post thought it advisable to note that Penkovsky was not normal . . . ." The Washington Post published excerpts from the "papers."
